

2025 STAR and CHIP Primary Care Provider Incentive Program

Texas Children’s Health Plan has updated its 2025 STAR and CHIP Primary Care Provider (PCP) Incentive Program in an effort to align with state priorities and quality measures. This year’s program places emphasis on incentivizing PCP groups for Child and Adolescent Well-Care Visits, Follow-Up Care for Children Prescribed ADHD Medication, Appropriate Testing for Pharyngitis, and Childhood Immunizations.

How you qualify

To participate in the incentive program each PCP group must meet the following baseline requirements:

- A combined PCP group panel of at least 250 CHIP and STAR members, based on membership as of December 2024.
- A group may have more than one practice location sharing the same Tax ID number

Please note that Texas Children’s Health Plan will monitor eligible PCP groups identified based on membership in December 2024. Qualifying PCP group panels will be monitored to ensure they remain open throughout the 12-month payout cycle. No new PCP groups will be added to the PCP Incentive Program during the 2025 calendar year unless they are associated with a Tax ID already participating in the program.

Program Structure

The program includes HEDIS quality performance measures for which there is one annual payout. Care must be captured administratively through claims. Medical record submission will not count toward incentive payments.

- Each payout is proportional to the performance level and number of members assigned to PCP group’s panel, subject to a cap.
- Payout caps:
Level I $30,000
Level II $15,000
- Effective Q1, each quarter, PCPs have the opportunity to earn an additional $250 payout by accessing gaps in care reports via Inovalon Tool.
- PCPs can earn an incentive for each separate measure included in the 2025 program.
- Providers are eligible for $8 incentive per member for Level I performance and $4 incentive per member for Level II performance.
